

3 Day Acrylic Painting Course

Learn to paint Acrylics with TV Artist Dermot Cavanagh
At His Spacious Studio near Moy in Co. Tyrone

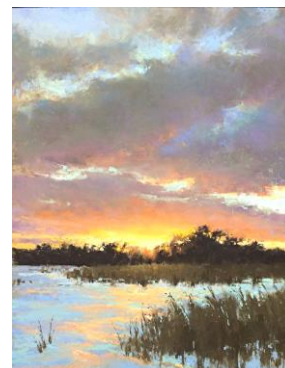

Dermot Cavanagh invites you to join him and learn to paint in Acrylics. This small-group painting course at his own studio near Moy, in the heart of the County Tyrone countryside is the ideal environment to learn and develop your Acrylic painting skills. The studio is spacious, well-lit and very comfortable and Dermot's expertise will guide and inspire you to paint. He will teach many tips and techniques that will help bring out the artist in you. Learn to create your own fantastic paintings under instruction from a world-renowned tutor. Dermot will teach you about composition, colour mixing, contrast, painting mediums and essential tips for successful Acrylic painting. People often say they've learnt more from Dermot's courses in a few days than from years attending other classes. These courses cater for all levels of artistic ability and absolute beginners. Places are limited to allow for lots of Dermot's individual tuition and attention with all professional painting materials provided.
