Painting Tour in Northern Ireland With BBC TV Artist DERMOT CAVANAGH

During my painting course tours in the UK lots of my guests often say they've never been to Northern Ireland. If like so many others you've never been, now is the time to give it serious consideration, and I can help.

In 2022 I am offering art enthusiasts the opportunity to join me on a 5-night painting break in Northern Ireland and experience a taste and flavour of my homeland. This tour includes a 3-day painting course in the tranquil setting of my own studio in the heart of the county Tyrone countryside, with all materials and lunch provided. As well as two sightseeing tour days. On one of which, I will help you explore the must-see sights of Mid-Ulster. And on another I'll be your guide for an unforgettable tour of Belfast City.

This beautiful region is a hidden gem and is now starting to get the attention it deserves. Your accommodation will be based at The Ryandale Hotel in Moy, and all internal mini-bus transfers are included in the tour. Evening food and beverage excursions will help you discover the local hospitality and culture of the region.

I can bring out the artist in anyone! - People often say they have learned more from my courses in a few days than from years attending other classes. So, what more of a reason do you need to visit Northern Ireland? Join my tour today. You can fly to Belfast from many UK airports. Please contact me for full details.
